HTC One Android 4.3 Software Update

C Spire HTC One customers will begin receiving a system pop-up notifications for a new system update. To install, simply tap Install. The HTC One will reboot and install the software update.

To manually check for the update on a C Spire HTC One, got to the Settings app, then select About device, and System updates. Click Check now to check for updates.